

Faith in the "fifth estate" is beginning to erode. Dan Rather's integrity has been impugned and if Sinclair is follows up with an overt breach, the public will lose confidence in "impartial" media reporting.

This is a very slippery slope. If one does it, others will follow. This must not be allowed to occur.